Matter of Blocking Streets During Construction Has Brought Vigorous Protest From Merchants.

BURGESS REFUSES TO ACT

UNIONTOWN, Oct. 8.—Mr. James Russell who claims to be a descendant of William the Conqueror, lit his tuxedo with her husband for Europe to look after a title and immense wealth that awaits the rights of heirs of the Whaley family well known in 1346 county.

The fact that this volume was awarded, to be claimed by the rights of heirs, is brought to the attention of the Whaley's a few years ago and Mrs. Russell since her sure deed in proving to the satisfaction a herself and others that the Whaley's of Fayette county are lineal descendants of the original title holders.

Burgess A D Soisson has been assailed by nearly all the merchants doing business along the west side of North Pittsburg street, between Main and Apple streets on account of the blockading of the sidewalk application for the opening of which was filed with the Town Council Tuesday night and referred to the Burgess to consider.

Bumble bees as big as sparrows frequent the neighborhood of Meyer if the tale of Fred Myers who works for the West Penn. is to be given credence. Fred tells a most convincing said as he declares the he saw was so big it frightened him off the job and caused him to boat to the next one for Councilville.

 It was yesterday morning that Fred was inspecting the rails just beyond the Meyer station when he heard a peculiar humming noise. Poking into the brush and weeds beside the track he saw a small bee as big as the others. "Landing bee," he called upon a plant. So big was the bee that it caused the plant to tremble almost to breaking point.
 For a few minutes Meyer watched the insect as it flew from one place to another. Finally it lighted upon a stalk which bent clear to the ground.
 As Fred took a look and saw the bee stretched out and working on the plant it got an eye upon him. Then the insect ceased deigned a larger audience than the neighbors supplied.
 The bee gave up the dust but Fred concluded to give the bee a second Meyer. He came back to town where the bee would have fly follow him. He declares a humming bird would look as small as a bee up be side the bee he saw.

Constable Mitchell Comes Forward With Idea for Decoration of Schools

Constable J W Mitchell sprung a suggestion this morning that might well be acted upon. It is Mitchell's opinion that instead of permitting the plants on the City Hall lawn to be killed by frost and what is rigorous they be taken up and then planted in boxes for the beautification of the school rooms of the borough.

During the summer the plants add to the appearance of the big lawn about City Hall but each winter they succumb to the cold weather and new plants must be purchased the following year.

While it is the custom to take up the best plant and keep them in the lot of the Borough building Mitchell thinks his idea is a better one.

HELD FOR COURT

Archie Stivers Is Under Bail for $300
in Furniture Case

Arch Silver charged with larceny by bailee in disposal of furniture secured by the installment method was given a hearing before Justice of the Peace W. P. Clark yesterday.

After hearing the evidence in the case Silvers was held for court under $500 but while he is out on bail, he is unable to secure ing one and many complaints have been received by him during his administration but he has always endeavored to get matters fixed up satisfactorily with contractors in order to make things as pleasant as possible. It is generally recognized that street are greatly annoyed and their business has suffered as a consequence of the building of the big Second National Bank building but the remedy for the evil is not within the power of the Burgess. Nearly all of the mer-

As a result of this he took the question up with his own Solicitor, S. B. Gold.

The ordinance regulating the opening up of sidewalks allows him the privilege of compelling the contractor keep them open, but it is faulty from the fact that it does not give him power to direct that an overhead protection be built. Burgess Schlosser and the Borough Attorney both decided that it was extremely more dangerous ous to the public to have the sidewalk along the building opened with the least possible delay, and that in the event present danger of material falling from the scaffolding thus to have the sidewalk closed. The ordinance regulating the matter is very brief and reads as follows:

Section 1 of the Davis Ordinance Article 4 regulating nuisances. Provides also that persons who are erecting buildings or repairing the same shall not allow any scaffolding on, shall be allowed to occupy for a reasonable time the space not to exceed one-half the width of any street or sidewalk, and shall remove any such scaffolding, however, as not to obstruct the sidewalk or gutter having first reced pointed from the sidewalk by a sign or under any sidewalk shall be substantially bridged over, under penalty of not exceeding twenty-five

In this it will be seen that power is given to open the sidewalk, but the safety of the pedestrians in, no way, guaranteed by an overhead structure. Borough Attorney Goldsmith was of the opinion that in the event of an accident the Borough could be sued for damages. In this regard he thought that the Public Safety Committee should be notified and if it so desired to open the sidewalk, then

Mr. Solomon contested with several members of the Town Council and explained matters to them. The general opinion was that the best way to proceed was to have another ordinance drawn providing for the granting of building permits and including all the various questions that usually arise in the construction of buildings. It was suggested that building ordinances of other towns be secured and an ordinance be drawn up suitable to the conditions of Connallyville.

The fact that there is to be another large building erected at the corner of Pittsburg and Apple streets on the same side of the street would effectively block up this side of the street for the balance of the year, and the immediate passage of a building ordinance would bring relief in a measure to the merchants who have such a serious complaint, and one that is usually considered just.

NOT A ROOSEVELT DYNASTY
BUT A BRYAN DICTATORSHIP

The story that Nicholas Longworth son-in-law of President Roosevelt, had intentionally or inadvertently revealed the plans of a Roosevelt dynasty, which includes eight years of Taft, eight more of Roosevelt and then possibly eight more for Long worth, was really so absurd upon its face that no serious attention was paid to it outside of a portion of the Bryan press and some of the Bryan shouters.

Longworth denies the story. A Democratic reporter affirms it but the version the latter gives renders it manifest that whatever was said was intended as a joke. It is a lamentable fact that some people cannot see a joke unless it is plainly labeled, while others refuse to see it if it suits their interests better to be blind.

The Democratic party has always affected a hysterical terror at the thought of a dynasty, yet the party has been completely dominated for a dozen years by a single person, who has with one possible exception dictated its platform, its policies and its nominations with the arrogance of that imperialism which he has in the same breath denounced. Only a few months ago he kicked Colonel Guffey unmercifully out of the Democratic National Convention; and deprived Pennsylvania of a voice in its most important deliberations, because Guffey and the Pennsylvania delegates would not bow down before him and worship him.

The Bryan dynasty has never been inflicted upon the country, fortunately for the country but it has been a back-breaking burden to the Democratic Ass.

CANALIZATION
AND WATER POLLUTION.

General Lou Smith, the veteran editor of the Meyersdale Commercial is inclined to poke fun at the Yough river canalization project. We will admit that in the present condition of the river it is pretty nearly a dry subject, but perhaps it wouldn't be so dry if it wasn't pumped so hard and diverted so fast. The Commercial says:

The Conneltsville Board of Health are up in arms against their neighbors further up the Yough river for polluting the river by throwing all kinds of refuse into that noble stream and its tributaries and as usual Confusion appears to be the object of their wrath.
In the past Conneltsville has accused the latter town of polluting Indian Creek even up to its headwaters and then they have been throwing out beef bones and tin cans into the river throwing obstacles. In the way of the United States Government of can alizing it from West Newton to Conneltsville.
This is a serious matter and should receive the immediate consideration of the general government before any of the injury is done to one of the nation's chief navigable rivers. Just imagine the serious consequences to life and property that would occur if a freshet should carry down the stream a beef bone or a tin can and one of Conneltsville's fleet of steamers should run into and stove in their sides.

The ambitious dreams of the Great-or Conneltsville of rivalling Buffalo and Duluth as lake or river shipping ports should not be jeopardized.
It is rumored that the Conneltsville Board of Trade has procured the services of Simon P. Spitznagel an expert on Yough pollution and also that of a well known physician of the Greater City who has written volumi-nously on the pollution of the Yough river and its tributaries by Conneltsville microbes to bring in a report on two vital subjects. The pollution of streams and obstructions to navigation.

Whether or not the Youghogheny river is made navigable to Conneltsville or to any point it is certain now that the Department of Health of Pennsylvania is determined to free the waters from pollution. The waters may not be dammed but they shall not be forever unclean with corruption. The State has already given notice that the Youghogheny river and its tributaries shall be purified just as soon as practicable and thereafter kept pure at whatever cost to the communities now guilty of polluting the waters.

The Commercial will find the question of pollution has passed the joking point in the Youghogheny valley and its watersheds. Meyersdale will have to find another place for the disposal of its sewage and garbage.

CONNELLSVILLE
NOT FIRST ON THE LIST.

The Washington Observer congratulates the town on the fact that it has a sewage disposal plant and refers to it as an excellent investment. The Observer says in this connection that Washington was one of the first towns or municipalities in the State to act promptly on the advice of the State Health Department in the disposal of its sewage. Its disposal plant is now about completed and the town's sewage will no longer pollute the streams and be the source of disease-producing conditions. Washington has always been more or less progressive in the work of preserving the health of its people but it should not stop at what it has accomplished.

A garbage furnace is indispensable to the community and should be created during the next few months at the latest. A good waste in of sewage may be treated and a sewage disposal plant with good water supply will add to the natural advantages which Washington enjoys as a health town. Now if invested in making secure the lives and the health of a people is well worth the cost.

The Observer says the town acted promptly on the advice of the State Health Department. The Health Commissioner's advice in matters of this kind is usually accompanied by a shove. Did Washington jump or was she pushed? In any event, she seems to have hit all right and there is an consequence for Conneltsville in the fact.

Washington is evidently a live and progressive town. The demand for a garbage furnace is only another indication of this fact. We trust this demand will receive more prompt consideration than that which has been persistently ignored by the Conneltsville authorities. The expenditure of burning the garbage on the river bank instead of dumping it into the stream as of doubtful propriety in view of the fact that a large portion of the disease-breeding element can not possibly be burned on the ground but must find its way into the river.

ROOSEVELT'S
PRAISE AND BLAME

The Democratic party, like its President, has become shy under the new management, but in doing so it has only followed its management.

Like master like pupil.
In the early stages of the campaign the Democratic spellbinders were instructed to praise Roosevelt and his policies and to proclaim them to be Bryan's own and Bryan himself coyly observed that he was the natural and true heir of Roosevelt.

But Roosevelt flattered him with Rooseveltian emphasis, and the Bryan honey was turned to bitterness. Democratic abuse is now being hurled at Roosevelt by the Democratic orators everywhere from Bangville to Bitter Creek and back.

It seems that after all Roosevelt is a Republican and not a Bryan and his hand loyally hoped a Democrat in disguise.

THE GOOD WORK
OF THE WATER FILTER

The Conneltsville people anxiously await the announcement that the filter plant of the Conneltsville Water Company has been properly repaired and is in good working order again.
Aside from the joy of having pure crystal water again the community will be relieved from the ever present and ever growing danger of typhoid.

Now people have fully appreciated what the filtration system of the water company meant to Conneltsville. It is estimated that the filter removes 98 per cent of the germs of disease and fully as much other impurities. Typhoid is spread largely by polluted water. Statistics show that the death rate from typhoid has been reduced 70 to 75 per centum by the installation of filtration systems.

Superintendent Stillwagon is the force possible to be employed in the work of restoring the filters to proper working order and we hope for an early resumption of the reliable functions. It was unfortunate that the break occurred just at this time when the necessity of the filters was most urgent but the proportion of such accidents is small.

In the meantime it will be well to BOIL THE WATER.

DEFECTS OF
PRIMARY LAW

The legislation of the party primaries has developed some questions showing that it is still within the power of shrewd politicians to defeat the excellent intentions of the law, but the secret making of the ballot will perhaps never be given up until the chief trouble with the primary law seems to be the room afforded for one party to influence the nominations of another. This might readily be remedied by holding the primaries on different dates or at different polling places.

This will be more expensive, it is true, but if the government is going to exercise a parental supervision over the primary elections it should adopt every possible means of making them open and fair.

The Uniontown Herald says Conneltsville is considering a monitor sewer project. New mind Uniontown will no doubt have an opportunity in the near future to study the same project. The State Health Department is not going to discriminate in this matter.

The street improvement Rule of this seems to be tangled up in some of its minor details.

A sidewalk should be at least as good as the paved street it abuts and if it is not the town Council should compel the property owner to make it so.

While there is not very much big standing timber in this vicinity to be destroyed by fire there is an abundance of young growth about five years old years set back for reforestation. This

The Republican county campaign is warming up but the front is still on the Bryan side.

The Uniontown Herald is still begging for this in its description but we have not noticed any printed record of it. Popular C. institutions do not seem to be particularly popular

TAFT AND BRYAN MEET AS GUESTS AT CHICAGO COMMERCE BANQUET.

Candidates Exchange Friendly Greetings and Pay Compliments to One Another—Partisanship Laid Aside.

ROOSEVELT WILL NOT STUMP.

President Declares Positively He Will Not Make Speeches, Saying It Is Not Necessary, Thus Settling Rumors as to His Spellbinding Trip.

Chicago, Oct. 8.—W. J. Bryan and W. H. Taft, rival candidates for the presidency of the United States, met last night at the fourth annual banquet of the Chicago Association of Commerce. The meeting is said to have been the first of its kind.

Mr. Bryan, having been in Chicago all day, was the first to arrive at the banquet hall in the Auditorium hotel. Mr. Taft, having delivered a speech at the opening of the deep waterways convention in the forenoon, went to Galesburg, Ill., to deliver another address during the afternoon and returned to Chicago after the banquet was well under way.

Intense interest in the meeting had been manifested since it first became known that the two candidates were to meet in public, and every seat in the three banquet halls, thrown together for the occasion, was occupied when the first course was served, save only a commodious chair reserved for Mr. Taft.

At ear-splitting shout gave warning of the arrival of Mr. Taft. Mr. Bryan, in common with everyone else, rose and looked toward the entrance. A huge frame, moving like a ship among a swarm of tugs, was moving slowly up the narrow aisle between two tables. One at a distance occasionally could catch a glimpse of a smiling face acknowledging greetings. A policeman in uniform and assistants in plain clothes aided in the progress of the distinguished guest. Mr. Bryan, who had ceased in the destruction of some sort of a chop suey masquerading under a French name, turned his head slowly as his political rival drew near, smiling brightly.

Exchange Friendly Greetings.
The dramatic moment which had been anticipated with such deep interest was soon over. Mr. Bryan's hand awaited that of Mr. Taft. A single lingering pressure, a word or so which none could overhear because of the tumult and the Republican leader passed on to a chair at the right of Mr. Hall. The cheering continued for a minute or so after these at the speakers' table had taken their seats. The first moment the noise subsided Mr. Bryan, leaning to one side and smiling broadly, asked Mr. Taft if he had had a good day.

This display of friendliness on the part of the two candidates stirred the crowd to renewed cheering and words were useless in the excitement. Mr. Taft struck his throat for a moment; then laughed and the applause increased. "What is the matter with Bill?" cried someone in stentorian tones. "He's all right." "Who's all right?" "He's all right!"

It took music by the orchestra and a song by the guests to restore a semblance of quiet. When talking in ordinary tones became possible the two candidates entered into an animated conversation, in which President Hall joined. The speeches of both Mr. Taft and Mr. Bryan were nonpartisan.

Mr. Bryan was first introduced. His text was the corporation and its relation to society. He made it plain that the God-made man should not be left in the solitude to protect the rights of the man-made corporation.

Judge Taft discussed court procedure and advocated a revision which would secure more prompt and certain justice for the litigant who cannot afford the expense of delay and numerous appeals to the higher courts.

Bryan Cracks a Few Jokes.
Mr. Bryan was cheered to the echo as he rose to speak. Cheers and laughter followed the humorous touches that characterized his opening remarks. Mr. Bryan said in part:

"Mr. Chairman, Judge and Gentlemen—I appreciate the honor of being present on this occasion. I appreciate the generous words of the chairman in presenting me to you. I think that it is a good omen when we can lay aside partisan feeling on an occasion like this and forgetting the things that separate us, remember the things that are more numerous and more important than those that divide us in the bonds of common citizenship. I think I can see signs of progress in politics. When I first began to run for president there were no occasions of this kind. I think I note a larger charity, a broader liberality and a more kindly feeling than has been shown previous to the past. These are the things that the representative committees must willing even in the heat of campaign to pause for a moment in the giving out of estimates. These are the things that the representative committees must willing even in the heat of campaign to pause for a moment in the giving out of estimates. These are the things that the representative committees must willing even in the heat of campaign to pause for a moment in the giving out of estimates."

Twenty-Five Drown on Grand Banks.
St. Pierre, Me., Oct. 8.—Twenty-five men were drowned as the result of the foundering of the French fishing schooner Junonia on the Grand Banks last week. The sole survivor, the captain of the vessel, who managed to cling to some planks for several hours, was brought here. He has lost his reason. The disaster occurred during a heavy gale. The Junonia, owned in St. Malo, was a three-masted schooner, registered 147 tons and was built at Liverpool in 1897.

Night Riders Close Cotton Mills.
Little Rock, Ark., Oct. 8.—Heeding notices posted on the door of the Arkansas Valley Cotton Oil company's office at Dardanelle twelve cotton mills of this concern were closed. The warning stated that the night riders were friends, but that unless the plants were closed at once torches would be used on the company's property.

of his abilities and his virtues. If I am successful the victory will be the greater to have won from such, and if I am defeated the sorrow will be less to have been defeated by such."

Mr. Taft, whose rising was greeted with another outbreak of violent cheering, produced his prepared speech with a few impromptu remarks, which created laughter. He said in part: "Mr. Chairman, Mr. Bryan and Gentlemen of the Chicago Association of Commerce—I have only begun to run for the presidency and I am glad to begin when the political amenities of the campaign are better understood."

Taft Returns Compliment.
"I am exceedingly glad to meet my distinguished opponent and fellow guest and to forget the rivalries and disputes of the campaign in this most inspiring hospitality. And I reciprocate in every way and to the full his kindly and courteous words of respect and good will. With him I have recently been subjected to considerable strain. But the experiences of today have been almost more than I could bear. One nonpartisan speech is a good deal of a burden when you are in other kind of practice. And to have to make three inside of nine hours, I submit to my distinguished fellow guest and opponent, is cruelty to animals."

"On behalf of our distinguished fellow guest and myself, in view of the fact that I follow him, I tender thanks to the citizens of Chicago for relieving one of us in the selection of a cabinet."

"And this with entire deference to these other candidates for the presidency whose engagements prevented their attendance."

With the conclusion of Mr. Taft's speech, the banquet ended. The candidates shook hands cordially and parted, although they were delayed in leaving the hall by a rush of guests to obtain their signatures.

President Will Not Speak.
Washington, Oct. 8.—President Roosevelt has announced that he will make no speeches in support of the candidacy of William H. Taft for the presidency, as there is no necessity for such action. This declaration was made during a call of Senator Hemenway of Indiana, one of a series of conferences at the White House, at which the general political situation was under review. Mr. Hemenway asked the president regarding the report that he would take the stump. The president replied that he had received numerous requests to do so but he thought it was unnecessary and made the unequivocal statement that he would not make any speeches. Mr. Hemenway declared that both the national and state tickets would be elected in Indiana.

National Committeeman William L. Ward of New York and National Committeeman D. L. Mulvane of Kansas also talked politics with the president. Mr. Mulvane told the president that he felt assured everything was favorable for Mr. Taft in Kansas. Mr. Ward stated that Secretary Root would speak in New York Oct. 31 and that he was trying to induce the secretary to make other speeches for the Republican ticket.

Sherman Speaks at Piqua, O.
Piqua, O., Oct. 8.—Special excursion trains from many surrounding counties brought great crowds here to hear Mr. Sherman speak. All the stores and places of business were profusely decorated and almost the entire population turned out. After an automobile parade and luncheon at the Piqua club Mr. Sherman was taken to the base-line grounds, where his address was delivered. The candidate devoted his speech to a review of Republican accomplishments during the last half century. He arraigned the Democratic party and Mr. Bryan for making many promises to the people, none of which, he declared, had been kept.

Franklin, Ind., Oct. 8.—Vice President Charles W. Fairbanks discussed trust in a speech last night, declaring for an investigation of corporations and their regulation without injustice to either capital or labor. The vice president was the principal speaker at a Republican rally.

New York, Oct. 8.—While the exact itinerary of Judge Taft has not been definitely fixed the information was given out at Republican national headquarters that he probably will resume his speaking tour early next week. It is expected that he will spend one or two days in Kentucky, Tennessee, Ohio, West Virginia, Maryland, New Jersey and, as before announced, New York and Connecticut.

St. Pierre, Me., Oct. 8.—Twenty-five men were drowned as the result of the foundering of the French fishing schooner Junonia on the Grand Banks last week. The sole survivor, the captain of the vessel, who managed to cling to some planks for several hours, was brought here. He has lost his reason. The disaster occurred during a heavy gale. The Junonia, owned in St. Malo, was a three-masted schooner, registered 147 tons and was built at Liverpool in 1897.

You who have been looking for a place in which to invest securely the few hundred dollars you have saved from which you are deriving no special benefit have here the security you have long sought. What can you imagine would be more secure than a Certificate of Deposit issued by the Citizens National Bank of Connellsville? With this security the opportunity is open (if you are so inclined) of associating your money in an enterprise which has proved itself.

A company has been organized and is now manufacturing a product in Connellsville which expects to pay dividends of 35 per cent. They will want to greatly increase their capital within the next year. This means it is adopted to have a large list of stock buyers ready. In order to prevent the business falling into the hands of a few it has been decided not to sell more than $25,000 worth of stock to any individual. Deposits for this purpose will be received from $50 up to $2,500 and deposit slips issued by the Citizens National Bank of Connellsville payable at the end of a year for the same.

If you do not have as much money in hand as you wish to deposit on this account, you can make two or more deposits and a certificate of deposit will be issued for each amount.

This is the only chance the small investor has ever had to hold a bank certificate of deposit while the opportunity of investment develops itself with the privilege of investment or withdrawal at the end of the term.

YOU DO NOT TAKE A CHANCE.

If in one year you are not convinced that the proposition is all that is claimed for it all that is necessary is to endorse your certificate of deposit and receive your money from the Citizens National Bank of Connellsville.

If you wish to invest at once call at the Citizens National Bank where they will direct you to the plant where you can make a thorough investigation.

The plan in a nut shell is that you send your deposit direct to the bank, receive their deposit slip and await developments. If the plant proves what is claimed for it at the end of a year stock will be returned.

The company will manufacture one of the greatest profit-making products in the United States, something needed in every family. They have now an assured market for their output. The directorate is composed of the most conservative and successful business men in Fayette county.

This proposition will stand the closest investigation.

SISTERS ARE HELD FOR ERB KILLING.

Inquest Brings Out Details of Fatal Quarrel—Mrs. Belsel Did Shooting.

Chester, Pa., Oct. 8.—That there might be no delay in firmly fixing the responsibility for the murder of Captain J. Clayton Erb, national guardman and politician, who was shot to death at his country home near Media, a joint inquest and hearing, was held in the case at the office of Alderman Smith in this city, at which time Mrs. Erb was committed to jail as an accessory in the murder of her husband, and her sister, Mrs. Catherine Belsel, was held charged with the killing.

The inquest was held by Coroner Carr and at the conclusion of the taking of the testimony the jury rendered a verdict "that Captain Erb's death was due to hemorrhages following a gunshot wound inflicted by Mrs. Catherine Belsel."

From the testimony of Mary Payne, a cook; Patrick McKeown, a guard; William Adams and William Nichols, attendants at Captain Erb's place, together with the statement of County Detective Berry and Constable Simpson, the circumstances seem to be about as follows:

After Mr. Erb's arrival Mrs. Erb went to the hotel, where her sister was staying, and told her that if Mr. Erb made any trouble she would kill her. When she returned to her home and met Captain Erb in the hall he took her to task for having her sister at the house after he had warned her not to come there. Mrs. Belsel, the detective testified, told him Captain Erb had applied vile epithets to his wife and there was a bitter quarrel. Mrs. Erb then telephoned to Mrs. Belsel and when the latter reached the house she found her husband in the hall on the second floor. Captain Erb told her to get out and rushed at her with a revolver in his hand. She struggled with him and, securing the weapon, pointed it at him and fired. When she pulled the trigger, Berry says, she alleged she could not stop the firing. In the light that occurred a vase or cuspidor was thrown and hit Captain Erb.

The weapon with which the shooting was done belonged to Mrs. Erb and had been taken from her by the captain a few days before. The weapon was of the double-action pattern. Indicating the improbability of Mrs. Belsel's story that she could not stop firing, the detectives stated that the trigger had to be pulled at each shot.

BOTH BACHELORS AND BENEDICTS CLAIM VICTORY AT BALL GAME.

Contest in New Haven Ended in Dispute With Teams Near a Tie.

Who won the ball game in New Haven yesterday afternoon? This is puzzling more than one participant today as they limp around with stiff joints as a consequence of the encounter.

It all came to an end in the fifth—or was it the sixth—inning. A two-base hit had just been hit to right field by "Pug" Ritchey. The Benedicts raised a howl and declared the ball was fair, in which they were sustained by Umpire Jim Ross. During the argument which ensued the game broke up. The married men were in the lead until the argument, when the single fellows sneaked a couple across while no one was looking but themselves.

Each side claims victory, and it will probably take a board larger than the National Commission to untangle the mess.

The married men started off by walking away with their rivals, but errors were piled up and the single fellows narrowed the gap until victory was almost within their grasp until the mixup occurred.

The hitting of Carl Bishop for the married men, who hit two homers and a single, was the feature of the game. Harry Hackenberg was official scorer but his paper ran out at the end of the second inning, when the errors became so numerous they could not be kept track of. Claude Anderson, Billy Gilechrist and Jim Ross were the umpires, and each was equally bad.

CUBS AND GIANTS CLASH

National League Pennant Goes to Winner of Today's Contest.

New York, Oct. 8.—The most bitterly contested championship race in the National League's history will reach a climax today when the New York and Chicago teams will play off the disputed game of Sept. 23 at the Polo grounds. When John T. Brush arrived here from the directors' meeting at Cincinnati it did not take him long to announce that the Giants had consented to play off the game and therefore the momentous battle is scheduled for this afternoon.

It was reported that Hugh Jennings, manager of the Detroit American League champions, would be here to see the game. One of the two contestants is to meet the Detroit in a series of games for the world's championship and Jennings will have a chance to look at his antagonists, which over time it may be.

McGraw didn't know this morning who would pitch for his team, but if Mathewson looks to have the goods he will officiate. There was talk of Reulbach doing the pitching for Chicago, for he has been in good form of late, but he hasn't had much success on the Polo grounds, and Jack Pfeiffer, the left-hander, or the formidable Mordca Brown, may be Chance's choice.

MEN'S MISTAKES

Nature punishes us not without affording the penalty for the violation. When she is outraged she will have her penalty, although it takes a life. When through violation of her immutable laws in early life or later excesses man wastes away his nerve and bodily vigor, he is then compelled to struggle under the disadvantages which impede his progress and defeat his ends. He can scarcely hope to compare with those of his fellows who, possessing equal opportunities, have all their faculties unimpaired and bodily energies at their best. When the vital parts are in an impaired and undeveloped state, which is inconsistent with health, strength and vigor, and which renders them unfit for the active duties of life, they are wearing the danger point, and should secure immediate attention.

SPORTING NOTES.

Forest Moore, the new pitcher of the Chicago Cubs, won 20 and lost seven games with the Springfield team of the Three League this season.

With 20 won and 33 games pitched, Addus of the Baltimore club leads the Eastern League pitchers.

Bob Forbes, an old Yale player, is coaching the football squad at the University of Oregon this fall.

The hard fight of the "tigers" caused the bell of a Detroit fan to slip and he declares that he is William Shakespeare, Victor Hugo and Edwin Booth all rolled into one.

Washington won two games at Cleveland without the services of Delahanty. Better have "Dot" barred in a few more cities.

Six National League managers have picked the New York Giants to win the pennant. Frank Chance picked the Chicago Cubs and Fred Clarke was of the opinion that Pittsburgh would capture the flag.

The University of Michigan football team is working hard and the players feel confident of winning their game against Pennsylvania.

ASSOCIATION FOOTBALL.

Scottsdale Man, Makes Appeal for Organization of Teams.

An appeal has been received by The Courier for the organization of Association football teams in this section. The correspondent goes on to say that a few years ago there were several teams between Uniontown and Greensburg, but there are none now except at Scottsdale. He is of the opinion that there is still ample material for teams of this class and suggests the formation of a league in the Connelville coke region made up of possibly eight teams.

LEADING RETAILING ESTABLISHMENT OF FAYETTE COUNTY.

Our Entire 2nd Floor is Devoted to the Exclusive Display of Women's Apparel.

And is the Largest Exclusive Store of Its Kind in this Section.

When you come up to our second floor you enter the best equipped, the biggest and most comprehensive women's store in this county, but the scope of this spacious department comprehends but half of our garment and millinery store. We operate under the same management another store fully as large in Uniontown, all of the merchandise for both of these stores is bought by one group of buyers, gaining wonderful price advantages and little additional style touches which have gone far in establishing the wonderful volume of business we enjoy. It's the store that offers the best values. Nowadays that gets the bulk of business. We're prepared to prove our value-giving supremacy in no uncertain manner. We direct your attention to the suits we are selling at $18 in substantiation of the above claims.

You'll wonder at the superbly tailored suits we're showing at $18. These suits are tailored from the most stylish of new suitings, worsteds and chevron weaves with semi-fitting jackets, smartly trimmed with large buttons, silk, satin or worsted braids, following the directoire modes. The skirts are gored circular models with directoire effect at side. These are also trimmed with buttons and braids; jackets are full satin lined and the tailoring of each garment is of a distinctly high order. You'll not wonder at our enthusiasm when you see them as they far surpass any suits at this price we have seen. The styles are too varied to admit of individual description.

Dress in the Warm Glow of a Cheerful Fire:

THE BEST OF GAS HEATERS ARE VERY INEXPENSIVE HERE.

The chill and shock received upon jumping out of a warm bed into a cold room is responsible for much of the sickness resultant from "colds," and even though you don't "catch a cold," there is a lot of comfort in dressing in a warm room. Here are the best gas heaters made; heaters that are slightly, durable and that radiate an intense heat, perfect combustion does away with all odors and you get what you're looking for "a lot of heat at little expense" cool nights, cold mornings, warm through the day, that's Fall weather; too hot to start the furnace—a gas heater answers the purpose.

10-4 Sheeting at 23c

These sheetings are regular 36c values, but we bought them in a big quantity and divided them between our two stores. 23c is the lowest price you've seen quoted on like quality of wide sheeting in many months. It represents a saving of 7c a yard.

Plenty of Warm Bed Coverings at Little Prices.

ALL OF THEM MADE IN SANITARY FACTORIES

Of utmost importance to you is that little sentence "made in a sanitary factory," especially in the buying of bed coverings. The coverings we offer are all bought directly from the maker. Our buyer visits the factory. He sees just where and how they're made. He knows exactly what the "filling" of the comfortables are. He knows how thoroughly shrunken are the yarns that compose these luxurious blankets of wool and just how cleanly are the conditions surrounding the making of them all. They cost you no more here than elsewhere and you know positively that you do not risk the health of your family by the purchase of bed coverings made in uncleanly sweatshops where precaution against disease is unknown.

Handsome New Voile Skirts

Gored circular and pleated models, in black voile skirts, and voile still seems to hold indisputable sway in the skirt world. Skirts this season are more diversified in style than formerly. Directoire modes have given the designer more latitude and the outcome is a presentation of styles and adaptation from directoire models that is confusing in its diversity. More or less elaboration is to be found in the designing of even these black skirts large crocheted buttons and bands of taffeta, others are self-trimmed in a like manner. Every model features a style innovation that relegates the skirt you have to the old clothes bag. You'll realize how radical has been the fashion change when we show you some of the new and striking models that embody all of the new features of silk construction.
